Walter Crawford Named 2006 Builder of the Year

BONITA SPRINGS, Fla. (Feb. 2, 2007) – Walter Crawford, president and chief executive officer of Heatherwood Construction Co., was named the 2006 Builder of the Year by the Collier Building Industry Association (CBIA). The honor was presented to Crawford during the CBIA 53rd annual banquet and awards ceremony at Naples Grande. The annual award recognizes professionals who have provided a significant contribution to the CBIA and commercial contractors throughout the year, and who have demonstrated superior professionalism in the commercial construction industry.

“I am honored to win this award,” said Crawford. “With the assistance of my hardworking team at Heatherwood Construction, we are positioned to be bigger, better and stronger than we’ve ever been.”

Since graduating from the University of Florida in 1989, Crawford has worked in the commercial construction industry as a chief estimator, an area manager and as a senior project manager. In January 2004, he acquired Heatherwood Construction Co., which specializes in diverse commercial projects in Southwest Florida.

Based in Bonita Springs, Fla., Heatherwood Construction Company is a full-service commercial general contractor serving Southwest Florida since 1980. The company provides complete construction turnkey services to clients from Naples to Sarasota including site search and selection, feasibility analysis, site development, value engineering, vertical construction and more.
