Heatherwood Construction to Open New Charlotte Office

PUNTA GORDA, Fla. (July 13, 2007) – Heatherwood Construction is expanding its presence in Southwest Florida with plans to open a new office in Charlotte County, located at 28100 Challenger Blvd. in Punta Gorda.

“Charlotte County is a natural expansion of our service area from Lee and Collier Counties,” says Walter Crawford, president/CEO of Heatherwood Construction. “We’ve been constructing projects in Charlotte County for some time, but with an office in the area we will be better able to serve our customer base. It’s good to be a part of the communities in which we build.”

Heatherwood Construction has completed several projects in Charlotte County including the Murdock Professional Center in Port Charlotte and Quality Self Storages in Port Charlotte and Punta Gorda. The builder is currently constructing Town Homes of Deep Creek and Kitson & Partners planning office in Port Charlotte.

The new office will serve Charlotte County, Sarasota and the surrounding areas and will open August 2007.

Based in Bonita Springs, Fla., Heatherwood Construction Company is a full-service commercial general contractor serving Southwest Florida since 1980.
